

https://www.fauquiernow.com/news/business/senior-helpers-to-open-new-location-in-warrenton-towne-centre/article_a6260a56-c441-11ee-9227-bb18b4a302e8.html

Senior Helpers to open new location in Warrenton Towne Centre

FauquierNow Staff
Feb 8, 2024

Oyindamola Lawal (left), president of Senior Helpers of Warrenton, stands with husband and Senior Helpers Vice President Dare Lawal.

Provided by Dare Lawal

Senior Helpers, an in-home care company, has leased 1,320 square feet within the Warrenton Towne Centre.

Senior Helpers' new branch at 583 Frost Ave. will join the center's existing businesses, which attract nearly 900,000 visitors annually, according to Kalis Development Corporation President Nicholas Kalis.

Recognized by Fortune Magazine in 2023 as one of the Best Places to Work in the nation for aging services, Senior Helpers ranked second among at-home care providers and was the highest-ranked national company in the category.

Co-founded in 2004 by Peter Ross, Senior Helpers aims to provide compassionate care and improve the quality of life for its clients, families and employees. The Warrenton location will be managed by Oyindamola Lawal.

Warrenton Towne Centre, located off Frost Avenue and Route 17, hosts various tenants, including Food Lion and Harbor Freight Tools.

Nora Eways Saa of Renaud Consulting represented the landlord in the transaction.

