Subject: Unique Arlington Beauty Salon Celebrates Twelfth Anniversary

Arlington, Virginia — On April 30th, 2004, Phantastique Salon celebrates its twelfth (12th) year of continuous service to the Metropolitan Washington Area. On April 30th 1992, this salon first leased space at the Williamsburg Shopping Center in the Williamsburg Neighborhood of North Arlington. This center is located at the intersection of North Sycamore Street and Williamsburg Boulevard in a truly suburban enclave of this rapidly urbanizing county. The community Phantastique serves boasts some of the county's finest schools including Yorktown High School, Bishop O'Connell High School, and Williamsburg Middle School.

On October 7th 2003, James C. and Nam Mollett Saculles assumed the lease to this successful salon at the Williamsburg Shopping Center in Arlington, Virginia. Since then, Phantastique's clients have included a remarkable cross-section of the local community. Nam and staff feature Matrix® hair care products.

The staff at Phantastique look forward to continuing to serve all their established and new clients for many years to come. Served by Arlington Transit's Route 52
