Yorktown High School Students Hold Photo Show at Shopping Center

Arlington— March 6, 2019 — Yorktown High School students Alex Tyler and Ryan Salsburg have announced their AP Photography show at Williamsburg Shopping Center in Arlington, Virginia. The Yorktown High School AP Photography program has students host and run their own art show as a part of their final grade. The two students have transformed an old hair salon into an art gallery that will host their March 10th from 12 - 4 PM.

“It is a wonderful opportunity, and I’d like to thank building owner Mr. Nicholas Kalis for giving us a place to display our years of hard work,” said Ryan Salsburg, Yorktown High School Student.
